As night fell, Clara and Ciara started to get scared. They huddled together for warmth and tried to keep their spirits up. But they were both very tired and hungry.

Suddenly, they heard a noise. They looked up and saw a light in the distance. They ran towards the light and found a small cottage.

They knocked on the door and an old woman answered. She invited them in and gave them some food and a place to sleep.

In the morning, the old woman helped Clara and Ciara find their way back home. They were so happy to see their parents again!

Clara and Ciara learned a valuable lesson that day: always be careful when you're playing in the forest. And if you ever get lost, don't be afraid to ask for help.

The Nursery Rhyme

Clara and Ciara, Two little girls, Were playing in the forest, When they got lost.

They wandered around for hours, But they couldn't find their way back home. As night fell, they started to get scared, And huddled together for warmth.
