

Liberty First: The Path to Restoring America

Liberty First is a non-profit organization dedicated to restoring America's founding principles of liberty, freedom, and individual responsibility. We believe that these principles are essential for a just and prosperous society, and we are committed to defending them against all threats.

We are facing a number of challenges to our liberties today. The government is increasingly encroaching on our privacy, our free speech, and our right to bear arms. The media is biased and often spreads misinformation. And our education system is failing to teach our children the values that made America great.
