Beethoven's Symphony No. 1 is one of the most popular and frequently performed symphonies in the world. It was composed in 1799-1800 and premiered in Vienna in 1800. The symphony is in four movements:

- Adagio molto
- Allegro con brio

- Adagio
- Allegro molto e vivace

The first movement begins with a slow that leads to a lively Allegro con brio. The second movement is a gentle Adagio that provides a contrast to the first movement. The third movement is another Adagio, this time in a more somber mood. The fourth movement is a lively Allegro molto e vivace that brings the symphony to a triumphant .
