The Dark Gods

The Dark Gods are a pantheon of evil beings who rule over the City of Dusk. They are powerful and cruel, and they demand constant sacrifice from their followers. The Dark Gods are:

- Moloch: The god of fire and sacrifice. Moloch is a cruel and demanding god, and he requires his followers to sacrifice their own children to him.
- Baal: The god of war and destruction. Baal is a violent and bloodthirsty god, and he delights in the suffering of others.

- Astarte: The goddess of love and beauty. Astarte is a seductive and treacherous goddess, and she uses her beauty to lure her victims to their doom.
- Mammon: The god of wealth and greed. Mammon is a greedy and miserly god, and he hoards his wealth to himself.
- Belial: The god of deception and lies. Belial is a cunning and treacherous god, and he uses his lies to deceive and manipulate others.

The People of the City of Dusk

The people of the City of Dusk live in fear of the Dark Gods. They are forced to make constant sacrifices to the gods in order to appease their wrath. The people live in poverty and squalor, and their lives are filled with misery and suffering.

The people of the City of Dusk are divided into two classes: the rich and the poor. The rich live in luxury and comfort, while the poor live in poverty and squalor. The rich are often cruel and oppressive, and they take advantage of the poor. The poor are desperate and hopeless, and they live in constant fear of the gods and the rich.

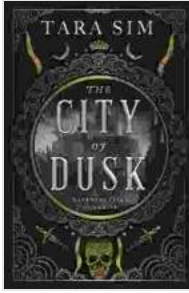

The Future of the City of Dusk

The future of the City of Dusk is bleak. The Dark Gods rule with an iron fist, and the people live in fear and misery. There is no hope for change, and the city is doomed to eternal darkness.
