It all starts when the Faradays are visited by a mysterious old man who claims to be from the future. He tells them that they must travel back in time to Rome to prevent a terrible event from happening. The Faradays are skeptical at first, but they eventually agree to go.

When they arrive in Rome, the Faradays are immediately thrust into a world of danger and excitement. They are captured by gladiators and forced to fight for their lives. But the Faradays are not ordinary kids. They are time travelers, and they have a secret weapon: their knowledge of history.

The Faradays use their knowledge of history to outsmart their captors and escape. They then set out to find the emperor, who they believe is the key to preventing the terrible event from happening.

Along the way, the Faradays encounter all sorts of amazing people and creatures. They meet a talking horse, a wise old wizard, and even a dragon! But their greatest challenge is yet to come.

The Faradays must face off against the evil emperor Nero, who is planning to destroy Rome. Nero is a powerful and ruthless enemy, but the Faradays are not afraid. They know that they must stop Nero, or else all of history will be changed.

The Faradays' adventure in Rome is full of action, adventure, and humor. It's a story that will appeal to readers of all ages.
