Overview of Contents

The first article in this issue is "The Importance of Context in Biblical Interpretation" by Craig Keener. Keener argues that context is essential for understanding the meaning of any text, including the Bible. He discusses the different types of context that need to be considered when interpreting the Bible, including historical, cultural, literary, and theological context.

The second article is "The Role of the Holy Spirit in Preaching" by H.B. Charles Jr. Charles argues that the Holy Spirit is essential for effective preaching. He discusses the different ways that the Holy Spirit works in preaching, including inspiring the preacher, convicting the hearers, and transforming lives.

The third article is "The Gospel and Social Justice" by Scot McKnight. McKnight argues that the gospel has implications for social justice. He discusses the ways that the gospel calls us to love our neighbors, care for the poor, and work for justice.

The fourth article is "The Doctrine of Election" by John Piper. Piper defends the doctrine of election, arguing that it is biblical and consistent with the character of God. He discusses the different objections to the doctrine of election and отвечает на них.

The fifth article is "The End Times" by Darrell Bock. Bock provides an overview of the biblical teaching on the end times. He discusses the different views on the end times, including premillennialism, postmillennialism, and amillennialism.
